

GENERAL TERMS + CONDITIONS

1. Preliminary

Avant Première Music + Media Market (short: Avant Première) is hosted by the IMZ International Music + Media Market, Stiftgasse 29, 1070 Vienna, Austria (short: IMZ).

A precondition of registration and / or submission for the event is the registered person's agreement to the participation guidelines. Every breach of the conditions of participation as well as any disregard for security regulations can result in the withdrawal of registration and the rejection of submitted film material for screening and immediate exclusion from all events by the organiser. The organiser reserves the right to assert additional rights.

2. Conditions for registration and film submission

Registration- and submission-deadlines are published on the Avant Première-website. A film submission does not guarantee registration. The organisers serve the right to accept or reject a registration or submission and in this instance will give notice to the submitter (company or individual).

A registration is only valid through the online registration form on the Avant Première-website (www.avantpremiere.at) and after a payment confirmation by the IMZ. A registration is linked to individuals and is non-transferable to others or within a company. A confirmed registration allows access to the Avant Première Screenings as well as to all programme items and events, except for the One-on-one Expert Session, which requires additional registration. The use of Individual Presentations Rooms or Meeting Desks is granted upon respective payment. Details are to be found on the Avant Première-website.

Film submission to the Avant Première Screenings is open for IMZ members (Full and Affiliate) only. Precondition for a successful submission and acknowledgement by the IMZ is a settled membership status at the stage of submission. A film submission is only valid through the online submission form on the Avant Première-website (www.avantpremiere.at) and after acknowledgement by the IMZ. Film submissions are only accepted during the official registration period. Screenings material submitted for the Avant Première Screenings can be included in IMZ video libraries at specific and industry related trade fairs and markets such as dance screen and for promotional Avant Première-related material like trailers, until cancelled.

3. Registration procedure

After a registration is completed through the online registration form the submitter receives a summary of the registration details including the gross amount to be paid. Within a maximum of 14 days the submitter is contacted by the IMZ being provided details and information regarding the registration and participation at the event. An invoice indicating the respective amount is included, which serves as confirmation for the successful registration.

4. Badges + tickets

Badges and tickets will be available at the entry to Avant Première at Hotel Scandic Potsdamer Platz, Gabriele-Tergit-Promenade 19, 10963 Berlin, Germany from Sunday 12 February 2017, 9:00. Badges and tickets are handed out upon presentation of valid personal identification and confirmation of registration. Individuals other than the applicant upon presentation of written authorisation can receive festival accreditation badges. Any company or person with outstanding debts towards the IMZ or Avant Première will be refused registration until debts are paid.

5. Loss + replacement

Over the entire duration of Avant Première, a badge or ticket is required to access the event areas. Security personnel can refuse individuals without ticket or badge entry. Tickets or badges used by people other than the registration holder will be confiscated. Loss or theft of tickets and badges must be reported to the IMZ staff. The issuance of a new ticket or badge may result in additional costs. The organisers reserve the right to not issue a replacement ticket or badge. Day Passes are non-replaceable.

6. Payment + annulation

Payment prior to the event is accepted via bank transfer only. Expenses and transaction fees need to be paid by the submitter. On site payment is possible in cash or by credit card (at no extra fees). A registration is valid only once the IMZ has confirmed the receipt of the full billing amount. A cancellation of a registration may only be considered and proofed as valid in writing within three weeks after the receipt of the invoice and not after 1 January 2017. Invoices are to be paid immediately upon receipt within a maximum of 14 days.

7. Prices + tax

Rates and tickets indicated on the Avant Première-website and the online registration form refer to net amounts excluding all applicable taxes. Registration is taxed 7% VAT, reverse charge is not applicable. Tax amounts are indicated whenever prices are stated. No further costs occur beyond the total gross amount shown in the summary of the registration. Accommodation costs are not included. In case of governmental tax changes or the charge of new or additional taxes and fees which are unknown to the parties at this time, the Proprietor reserves the right to adjust the named rates and prices accordingly.

8. Hotel + accommodation

Information and booking service for hotel accommodation is communicated on the Avant Première-website. Contents, availabilities and the execution of the booking process is provided by Visit Berlin and Hotel Scandic Potsdamer Platz Berlin, which are in charge of the information provided and are the only parties to be addressed in case of a withdrawal of a booking contract. The contact for Visit Berlin is to be found on the Avant Première-website. Avant Première-participants will be invoiced by the hotel and not by Avant Première or the IMZ. Questions and complaints concerning the booking process or service and accommodation on site are to be directed to the hotel directly and will not be administered by the IMZ.

9. Data protection

The IMZ collects data which participants provide during the registration process on the Avant Première-website. Personal data is processed only in accordance with data protection regulations. All personal information provided by Avant Première-participants will not be forwarded to third parties by the IMZ team.

11. Trademarks + third party content

All trademarks displayed on the Avant Première-website are subject to the conditions of the copyright and trademark rights of the registered owner. Simply by being named on our webpages should not lead to the conclusion that third party rights do not protect these trademarks. The same applies to content provided by third parties such as videos or trailers. Despite careful control of the content, the IMZ team is not liable for the content of external links. The owners of external sites are responsible for the content of the linked websites.

12. Film and sound recordings

Film and sound recordings of any kind by Avant Première-participants at film screenings as part of Avant Première are not permitted. Any infringement can lead to civil and criminal legal action and can result in the exclusion from the event. Film, digital, video or sound recordings that contain any content of a film screening as well as the recording device can be confiscated. The devices can be returned upon the condition that the owner agrees to delete the recordings beforehand. In light of the necessity to protect from piracy, every participant ensures that he or she will not steal intellectual property, in accordance with copyright laws and with respect to the resultant rights.

13. Right of withdrawal

You may withdraw your acceptance of our conditions by email to office@imz.at until 4 weeks after confirmation of payment. Your stored personal information will then immediately be deleted. Your registration will be cancelled at the same time.
